FRIDAY 16TH DECEMBER

Despite challenging times, our Catholic faith still has pivotal roll to play in wellbeing of society

2022 has been a particularly difficult year for us all, and the Catholic Church across England & Wales has also faced many challenges. Whilst the Covid pandemic closed and paralysed our church buildings for a long period across 2021, parish life continued and we taught ourselves new mechanisms for communication and evangelisation. The internet and digital communications brought fresh opportunities and new communities of ...
